Waqf made by Uthman (RA) is still serving the Ummah

Good deeds will be your currency on the day of Judgement. The heavier your account of good deeds, the easier it becomes to enter Jannah.

What actions would weigh heavier on the scales on the day of judgement?

... your legacy of Waqf

Islam encourages making Waqf treating it as Sadaqa Jariya (continuous charity) in the following hadith:

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said, "When a person dies, his/her deeds come to an end except for three things:

[Muslim, Riyad as-Salihin 1383]

Sadaqah Jariyah (continuous charity)

Knowledge which is beneficial

Good offspring who prays for him/her (for the deceased)

The example of those who spend their wealth in the way of Allāh is like a seed [of grain] which grows seven spikes; in each spike is a hundred grains. And Allāh multiplies [His reward] for whom He wills. And Allāh is all-Encompassing and Knowing.

(Al-Baqarah: 261)

Waqf broadly can be of two types:

Property Waqf and Cash Waqf

A waqf is an Islamic philanthropic institution in which a donor endows a portion of their wealth or property for a charitable, religious, or community purpose, ensuring its perpetual use for the benefit of society. It serves as a significant tool for social welfare and economic development within Islamic traditions.

Cash Waqf

Cash waqf is a charitable endowment of cash for the perpetual benefit of society. The Mutawalli (executor) is entrusted with responsibility of keeping the cash endowment intact and invest the endowed amount in low-risk portfolios and disburse the profits from the investment for social welfare.

Awqāf Foundation (AF) is a non-profit organization that works to revive the institution of Waqf. Inspired by divine virtues of Sadaqah-e-Jariah, Awqāf Foundation:

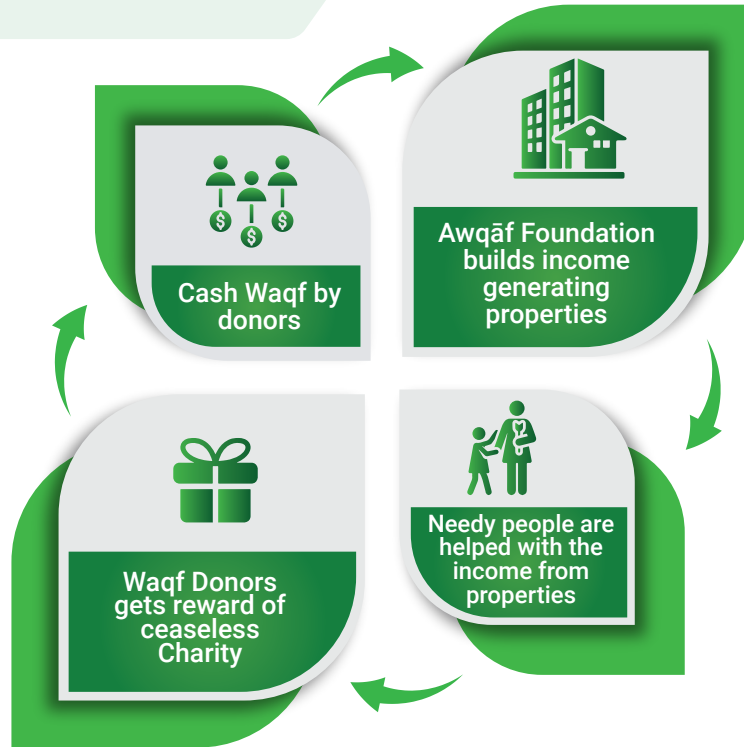

- ⚙ Mobilizes Waqf (both property and cash waqf)
- ⚙ Builds income generating properties
- ⚙ Distributes the usufruct (proceeds) from the properties to the deprived and needy (Widows, orphans, new Muslims), Dawah, research and public welfare activities through its well-articulated programs.
- ⚙ Ensures its accountability and transparency maintaining standard shariah practices.

All activities of the Awqāf Foundation are:

Never will you attain the good [reward] until you spend [in the way of Allāh] from that which you love. And whatever you spend - indeed, Allāh is Knowing of it. (Ale Imran: 92)

How Awqāf Foundation works?

O you who have believed, spend from that which We have provided for you before there comes a Day in which there is no exchange [i.e., ransom] and no friendship and no intercession. And the disbelievers - they are the wrongdoers. (Al Baqarah: 254)

Income Generating Projects

Awqāf Foundation will launch income-generating projects in some prime locations in Dhaka.

These projects will be funded by your contribution of cash-waqf.

Rental income will support programs like orphan and widow care and humanitarian aid.

Those who spend their wealth [in Allāh's way] by night and by day, secretly and publicly - they will have their reward with their Lord. And no fear will there be concerning them, nor will they grieve.
(Al Baqarah: 274)

And spend [in the way of Allāh] from what We have provided you before death approaches one of you and he says, "My Lord, if only You would delay me for a brief term so I would give charity and be of the righteous." (Al-Munafiqun: 10)
